

Conflicts of Interest Management Policy

1. INTRODUCTION

BN 80 of 2003 - General Code of Conduct for Authorised Financial Services Providers and Representatives (as amended) - at paragraph 3(1) (b) requires that when a provider renders a financial service, the provider and any representative must avoid and where this is not possible mitigate, any conflict of interest between the provider and a client or the representative and a client.

2. PURPOSE

This Policy seeks to regulate and control any prejudice to clients that could potentially arise as a consequence of conflicts of interest generally and in particular, as a consequence of non-cash incentives and benefits being offered by another provider, a product supplier or any other person to any person rendering financial services on behalf of VERACITY MARKETS (PTY) LTD (hereinafter referred to as "the Provider").

Conflicts of Interest will be managed so as to ensure that at all times financial services are rendered honestly, fairly, with due skill, care and diligence, and in the interests of clients and the integrity of the financial services industry.

6. DECLARATION OF THE PROVIDER'S OWNERSHIP INTEREST

- a. Neither the Provider nor any Representative has any actual or potential equity or proprietary interest of any kind in any Third Party that may, in rendering a financial service to a Client, influence the objective performance of his, her or its obligations to that client or that may prevent the Provider or any representative from rendering an unbiased and fair financial service to that client, or from acting in the interests of that client
- b. Neither the Provider nor any Representative receives any actual or potential dividend, profit share or similar benefit derived from any equity or ownership interest of any Third Party that may, in rendering a financial service to a Client, influence the objective performance of his, her or its obligations to that client or that may prevent the Provider or any representative from rendering an unbiased and fair financial service to that client, or from acting in the interests of that client.

7. DECLARATION OF OWNERSHIP INTEREST IN THE PROVIDER

- a. No Third Party has any actual or potential equity or proprietary interest of any kind in the business of the Provider that may, in rendering a financial service to a Client, influence the objective performance of his, her or its obligations to that client or that may prevent the Provider or any representative from rendering an unbiased and fair financial service to that client, or from acting in the interests of that client
- b. No Third Party receives any actual or potential dividend, profit share or similar benefit to the Provider that is derived from any equity or ownership interest that may, in rendering a financial service to a Client, influence the objective performance of his, her or its obligations to that client or that may prevent the Provider or any representative from rendering an unbiased and fair financial service to that client, or from acting in the interests of that client.

8. DECLARATION OF RELATIONSHIPS WITH THIRD PARTIES

- a. Neither the Provider nor any Representative has any actual or potential relationship with any Third Party that may, in rendering a financial service to a Client, influence the objective performance of his, her or its obligations to that client or prevent the Provider or any representative from rendering an unbiased and fair financial service to that client, or from acting in the interests of that client.

9. LIST OF ASSOCIATES

The Provider does not have any associate (as defined) who is a Third Party (as defined) and in respect of whom there is or may be any conflict of interest or any potential conflict of interest.

10. IDENTIFICATION OF CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

- a. A conflict of interest involves the abuse - actual, apparent, or potential - of the trust that people have in professionals. A conflict of interest is a situation in which financial or other personal considerations have the potential to compromise or bias professional judgment and objectivity.
- b. An apparent conflict of interest is one in which a reasonable person would think that the professional's judgment is likely to be compromised. A potential conflict of interest involves a situation that may develop into an actual conflict of interest.
- c. It is important to note that a conflict of interest exists whether or not decisions are affected by a personal interest; a conflict of interest implies only the potential for bias, not likelihood.
- d. It is the formal policy of the Provider to avoid as far as possible all actual and potential Conflicts of Interest.
- e. In determining whether there is or may be a conflict of interest to which this Policy applies, the Provider shall, in particular, consider whether there is any risk of prejudice to any client, taking into account whether the Provider and/or any representative, associate or employee of the Provider:
  - i. is likely to gain financially, or avoid a financial loss, at the expense of the client;
  - ii. has an interest in the outcome of a service provided to the client or of a transaction carried out on behalf of the client, which is distinct from the client's interest in that outcome;
  - iii. has a financial or other incentive to favour the interest of another client, group of clients or any other third party over the interests of the client; receives or will receive from a person other than the client, an inducement in relation to a service provided to the client in the form of monies, goods or services, other than the legislated commission or reasonable fee for that service.

11. MANAGEMENT OF CONFLICT OF INTEREST

- a. Any queries by employees of the Provider in regard to conflicts of interest potential, actual or apparent must be referred to Bhavesh Patel via email to bhavesh@nfsgroup.co.za as the person responsible for the identification and management of conflicts of interest. Any decision by the aforesaid Key Individual shall be final and binding.
- b. The Provider shall establish and maintain a Gifts Register maintained on an official compliance record keeping system, wherein all immaterial financial interests shall be recorded by each representative to ensure compliance with the limitations set for such immaterial financial interests.
- c. This Conflict of Interest Policy shall be formally reviewed each year at the beginning of the year or during the year at any time when changes have occurred.
- d. This Conflict of Interest Policy shall be viewed holistically and shall not concentrate on remuneration issues only. The Policy shall have as its sole purpose the intention of ensuring that at all times financial services are rendered honestly, fairly, with due skill, care and diligence, and in the interests of clients and the integrity of the financial services industry .
- e. All Key Individuals of the business shall regularly review the terms and conditions of the relationship between the business and all product suppliers and other financial services providers in order to identify potential, apparent or actual conflicts of interest and shall also regularly review the procedures adopted to prevent such conflicts in compliance with this Policy.
- f. Key Individuals shall be responsible for ensuring that all employees of the business are adequately exposed to the concept of Conflicts of Interest and shall provide appropriate training to employees and shall be responsible for ensuring the adherence of employees to the Policy.

12. MEASURES FOR THE DISCLOSURE OF CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

- a. Where the Provider has considered the circumstances surrounding a possible Conflict of Interests and has determined for reasons that may have arisen at that time, that it is impossible to avoid such Conflict of Interest, the Provider shall at that time take such measures as may be reasonable to mitigate the prejudice to client.
- b. In circumstances referred to in paragraph 12.1 above the Provider or Representative as the case may be shall be required to notify the client in of the possibility of the conflict and shall disclose full details of the nature of the possible prejudice to the client.
- c. The written notification to the client shall also contain details and reasons why the Conflict of Interest cannot be avoided in the circumstances and the client shall be asked to confirm in writing that the Provider may proceed or continue to act in the particular matter, as the case may be.

13. PROCESSES, PROCEDURES AND INTERNAL CONTROLS

- a. The Provider shall ensure that its employees, representatives and, where appropriate, associates are aware of the contents of this Conflict of Interest Management Policy and shall provide for appropriate training and educational material in this regard.
- b. The Provider shall continuously monitor compliance with this Conflict of Interest Management Policy and shall at the beginning of each year conduct a review of the Policy.

14. CONSEQUENCES OF NON-COMPLIANCE

- a. If the Provider's Board of Directors has reasonable cause to believe that any employee, including any Key Individual, representative and/or any juristic representative has failed to disclose actual or possible conflicts of interest, it shall inform such individual/s of the basis for such belief and afford such individual/s an opportunity to explain the alleged failure to disclose.
- b. If, after hearing the response of the individual/s in question and making such further investigation as may be warranted, the board or committee determines that the individual/s has/have in fact failed to disclose an actual or possible conflict of interest, it shall take appropriate disciplinary and corrective action.

15. BASIS OF REPRESENTATIVE'S REMUNERATION

- a. Every Representative shall be remunerated on such basis as may be determined in each instance and shall in all instances be based on the performance of the specific Representative: provided however that the Provider shall not reward or in any manner remunerate any Representative for:
  - i. giving preference to the quantity of business secured for the Provider to the exclusion of the quality of the service rendered to clients; or
  - ii. giving preference to a specific product supplier, where the Representative in question may recommend more than one product supplier to a client; or
  - iii. giving preference to a specific product of a product supplier, where the Representative in question may recommend more than one product of that product supplier to a client.
